Excerpt: ... Cambridge he being the eighth president from the beginning: this was performed January 14. with Solemnity and Rejoysing. . . . [March] on the 31 of march mr John Prentice was ordained at Lancaster. . . . [May] only on the Sabbath day may 23. at middletown on Connecticut a thunder storm arose: and blew down part of an house which came against the meeting house, hurt the minster and divers of the assembly . . . - 1709. [May 18] allso on the same day mr david parsons was ordained pastor of the church of christ in maldon. . . . [November] on the 2d day their was two ordinations: mr thacher at middleborough. and mr willyams at watertowne: Mr. John T. Hassam communicated a continuation of his paper on The Early Recorders and Registers of Deeds for Suffolk County, presented at the meeting in May, 1898: -- Register* of Deeds for the County of Suffolk, Massachusetts. 1735-1900. At the meeting 1 of this Society held in May, 1898, I presented a paper giving some account of the Recorders, Clerks, and Registers of Deeds for the County of Suffolk from 1639, when the office of Recorder was first created, to 1735, beginning with Stephen Winthrop, the first Recorder, and ending with John Ballantine, who died in the latter year, while holding the office of Register of Deeds for the County. I purpose now to continue this work and to bring it down to the present year. While it may be true that the nearer we approach to our own times the less of purely antiquarian interest these sketches possess, still they will be the means of preserving for posterity what has been laboriously collected from sources not easily accessible, and they will perhaps prove of greater interest to those who are to come after us, when we ourselves have become part and parcel of the antiquitie...
